

Manchester Historic Association

2023 Annual Report

Richard Duckoff

1934 — 2024

This Annual Report is dedicated in memory of our good friend, Richard Duckoff. Dick loved Manchester's history and was a long-time Trustee of the Manchester Historic Association, serving from 2007 to 2020. Dick frequently led walking tours of downtown Manchester and Manchester cemeteries, which were always well-attended events. He also served as a member of the MHA collections committee and historic preservation committee, where he helped select nominees for the Historic Preservation Awards. Dick was always researching aspects of the city's history and his passion and excitement for Manchester's history was unmatched. He will be greatly missed.

Exhibit Highlight: Who Wore It? The Forensics of a Dress

On Exhibit April 2024-September 2024

In 2023, a generous donor gifted the MHA an 1887 wedding dress belonging to Elizabeth "Lizzie" Tuttle. It sparked many interesting conversations about the artifacts we preserve and collect that our guests rarely get to enjoy or even hear about. Pieces like this 19th century wedding dress deserve their day in the spotlight. And so, "Who Wore It? The Forensics of a Dress" was born!

Elizabeth "Lizzie" Bunten Tuttle

Married Name: Elizabeth Bunten Tuttle
Years of Life: 1860-1932
Given Name: Elizabeth "Lizzie" Jane Bunten
Place of Birth: Dunbarton, New Hampshire to John Bunten and Elizabeth Hobbs
Spouse: James P. Tuttle Esq.
Occupation/Interests: Housewife, member of Daughter of the American Revolution
Legacy: Lizzie Jane Bunten was married January 1, 1887, to James P. Tuttle, prominent lawyer and later Attorney General in New Boston, NH. They had four daughters; Dora Morton, Rachel Winifred, Florence Elizabeth, and Margaret Esther.
Date of Dress: 1887 wedding dress with hand embroidered silk floral shawl

Marion Cossar Smyth

Married Name: Marion Hamilton Cossar Smyth
Years of Life: 1862-1947
Given Name: Marion Hamilton Cossar
Place of Birth: Lanark, Scotland to James and Jessee Finlay Cossar
Spouse: Governor Frederick Smyth
Occupation/Interests: Secretary at several Manchester companies, including Amoskeag National Bank
Legacy: After Mrs. Smyth's death in 1946, the Smyth estate donated land to the Veteran's Administration for the hospital construction project. The VA also acquired the Smyth Tower from the city. It was used as office space by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers which oversaw the hospital project. In 1949, the Frederick Smyth Trust was founded with funds bequeathed from Marion Smyth's estate. It continues to sponsor concerts, scholarships and music education in Manchester and the region. She also donated their home "The Willows" for use as a music school.
Date of Dresses: Mourning Dress: Circa 1899 (following the death of her husband Gov. Frederick Smyth and possibly used in 1914 following the death of her mother Jessee Cossar) Lingerie Dress: 1905- 1910

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Past, present, and future seem to meld together more each year, but the consistent overarching link is our own Manchester Historic Association. It is a preserver of the past, bringing it to the present in order to preserve it for the future.

As we conclude our 127th year of so doing, it is worthwhile highlighting some of our achievements. Our Education Program expanded to bring upwards of 2,300 students to witness history come alive. Featured speakers, American Doll Tea Parties, a holiday open house, as well as the permanent and special exhibits, brought nearly 7500 visitors to the Museum. Exhibits resonated with members and non-members alike. The discerning eye of Frank Kelly captured places, events, and people in a moment in time, forever preserving what he saw through his lens. With thanks to the Elliot Hospital Associates for donating four posters by Jeff Cuddy, we grew an exhibit with other posters highlighting events in and around Manchester and covering more than a century. Of course, since this was another primary season, it was a must for us to include an exhibit of highlights from past first-in-the-nation New Hampshire Primaries, always a popular draw. One of the most anticipated events is always the Historic Preservation Awards Gala, presented once again at Saint Anselm College. It was an exciting time of networking, eating, drinking, and celebrating distinguished landmarks in Manchester.

None of this could have happened without the work of our small but extremely dedicated staff. They all work extremely well together – and tirelessly -- under the expert guidance of Executive Director Jeff Barraclough and with the exuberance of Kristy Ellsworth, Director of Education, and with the help of newly-arrived Ashley Holm, Collections Manger (and there's much to manage!), as well as Beverly Peters, Visitors Services Associate, Mark Mastromarino, Library Assistant, and Bill Clayton in Custodial Services. Thank you, all! Continued thanks must be given to the many volunteers who serve as the first welcome to the Museum, and do so with a ready smile and eagerness to help. Special thanks go to the dedicated women and men of the Board of Trustees who never fail to support the Museum's work with their considerable expertise, time, and generosity. We would be adrift without you!

Every small non-profit competes for grants to support its mission, yet we are ever so blessed to have a cadre of organizations who continually believe in the work we do. The Cogswell Trust, the Hunt Foundation, McIninch Foundation, Bean Foundation, Amoskeag Industries, among others, contributed to our ability to bring students to the Museum, to install a new roof at the Research Center and, in short, to do our work. Thank you.

But most of all, thank you, the members and friends of the Manchester Historic Association, for your commitment to this wonderful organization. With your continued support, we look forward to countless more years of fulfilling our mission to Collect, Preserve, and Share Manchester's treasured history.

Selma Naccach-Hoff, President, Board of Trustees

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As I travel around Manchester, I am constantly reminded of the rich and inspiring history that the city holds. From the Amoskeag Millyard to Elm Street to neighborhoods throughout the city, the legacy of those who came before us is evident at every turn. It is the role of the Manchester Historic Association to tell and preserve that history and inspire today's citizens. I believe it is an important and necessary role that we have to play and one that we have had much success in fulfilling in the past year.

In 2023 we welcomed a record number of students into the museum for educational programs and have expanded the variety of types of programs available, from guided tours to scholarly scavenger hunts to hands-on activities that teach children about child labor, textile production, immigration, and urban development.

Thousands more have participated in our events and programs and visited the Millyard Museum to see our special exhibits. Using objects from our extensive collections and archives, we showcased two special exhibitions in 2023: first, "Henry W. Herrick, Manchester's Most Versatile Artist" that featured many illustrations and works of art by Herrick, arguably Manchester's most accomplished artist of the 19th century. Then, in the fall we opened "Posted! A Collection of Posters from Manchester's Past", featuring a wide variety of posters from our collection that have informed Manchester's citizens for over one hundred years.

Our MHA Research Center on Amherst Street continues to be a treasure trove of information that helps people learn about Manchester's history and serves as a repository of important objects, documents, and photographs that tell the story of Manchester and its people.

The Amherst Street building itself is a historically important part of the city that is nearly 100 years old. In the fall, a new roof was installed on the building to ensure that both the building and its priceless archives and collection of Manchester history continues to be preserved and safely cared for. We are indebted to the generosity of the Cogswell Benevolent Trust, McInnch Foundation, Samuel P. Hunt Foundation, and Madelaine G. von Weber Trust for funding this important project.

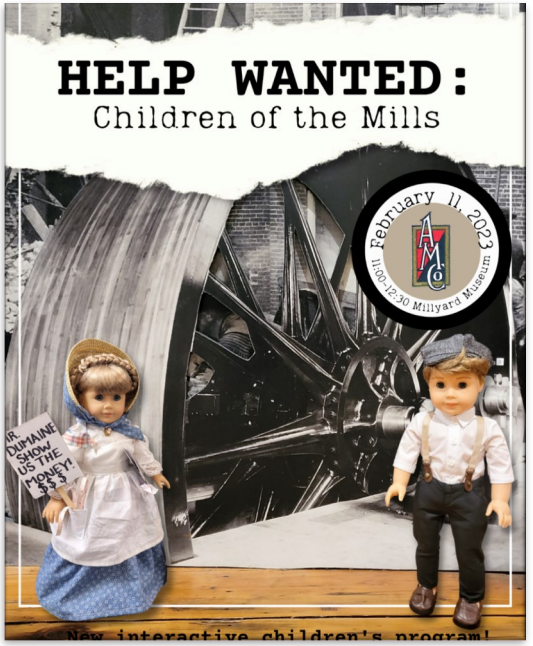

I wish to thank our hard-working staff, volunteers, and Board of Trustees for making this year such a success, and to all our members and donors for your continuing support. We look forward to another exciting year ahead!

Jeffrey R. Barraclough, Executive Director

2023 PROGRAMS, EVENTS, AND TOURS

School Programs

In 2023 the Manchester Historic Association hosted a much larger number of school groups than previous years! Bringing in Manchester schools has been a community effort. This year, the MHA received a grant from Amoskeag Industries to help pay for the buses and admission for Manchester school children to attend programs at the Millyard Museum. The Millyard Museum welcomed nearly 2,300 students from towns all over New Hampshire including Manchester, Concord, Bow, Nashua, Sunapee, Kearsarge School District and St. Paul's School in Concord. The Millyard Museum also welcomed several high school French classes as well as exciting partnerships with Girls at Work, Saint Anselm College, Plymouth State and UNH Manchester's incoming freshmen programs.

The Millyard Museum uses American Girl Dolls to teach children and adults about the grueling work days of child laborers during the industrial revolution

Exhibits

Manchester Through the Lens of Frank Kelly
This exhibit highlighted the works of Frank Kelly, a prominent Manchester photographer in the 1950s through the 1980s. Kelly owned Frank Kelly Studio in Manchester for 49 years. Over his long career, he, along with his wife Eleanor, photographed many Manchester people, businesses, and landmarks. The exhibit featured many rare shots of people and places in the city, including interior shots of Manchester businesses and organizations.

On Exhibit November 30, 2022 through March 31, 2023

Exhibits

"Henry W. Herrick: Manchester's Most Versatile Artist"

Guest browse the State Theatre Gallery at the opening of the Henry Herrick exhibit

This exhibit showcased the works of artist and illustrator Henry W. Herrick (1824-1906), a talented wood engraver, book illustrator, and watercolorist. After spending his childhood in New Hampshire, Herrick began his career as an artist in New York, working for several prominent publishers and teaching at the School of Design for Women. In 1865, he returned to Manchester where he continued to work as a designer and engraver and took up the art of watercolor. This exhibition featured many of his works from throughout his long and illustrious career.

On exhibit April 20th through September 30, 2023

Path to the Presidency

This mini-exhibit in the Millyard Museum's Discovery Gallery highlighted many of the presidential candidates who have visited Manchester over the past several decades. The exhibit featured some of the staff's favorite images of candidates campaigning in the Queen City, whether speaking to large crowds or meeting people one-on-one over a cup of coffee.

On Exhibit November 16th 2023 through March 2nd, 2024

Posted! A Collections of Posters from Manchester's Past

Throughout history, posters play a critical role in conveying information. They advertise products, announce events, publicize instructions, and urge action. Some are utilitarian in design, while others can be considered works of art.

" Posted!" featured fifty different posters from the MHA Collection spanning over one hundred years that have informed Manchester's citizens, from proclamations and health notices to Navy recruiting and movie theater advertisements.

Collection Highlights—2023

Blackout/Air Raid Notice, Amoskeag Fabrics, Inc., c. 1942

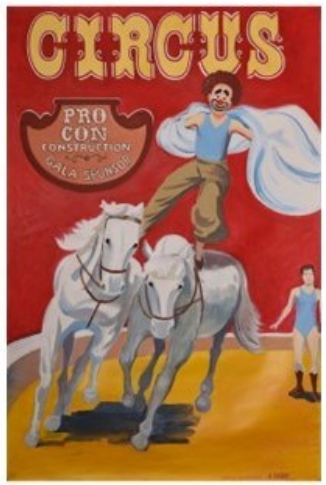

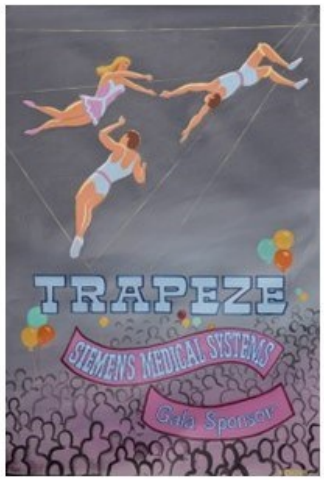

Amoskeag Fabrics, Inc. operated in the Millyard in the 1940s. The company was formed in 1938 and manufactured spun rayon. The company was financed by Amoskeag Industries and purchased the Jefferson Mill building.

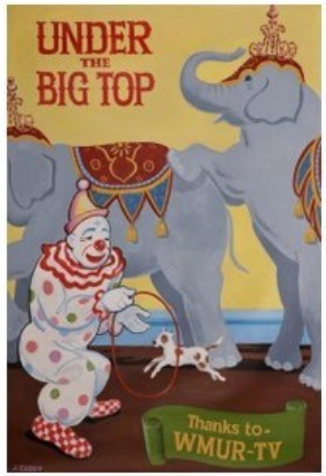

During World War II, Americans feared that air raids would take place in the United States, as they had in Europe, particularly Great Britain. To prepare, blackout drills were held that forced people to practice their response to an air-raid alarm. In a blackout, all lights were to be turned off, as any light visible from above could attract bombs or gunfire.

This object was purchased in 2023 from the MHA's Collection Acquisition Fund.

Elliot Hospital Circus Posters, c. 1992

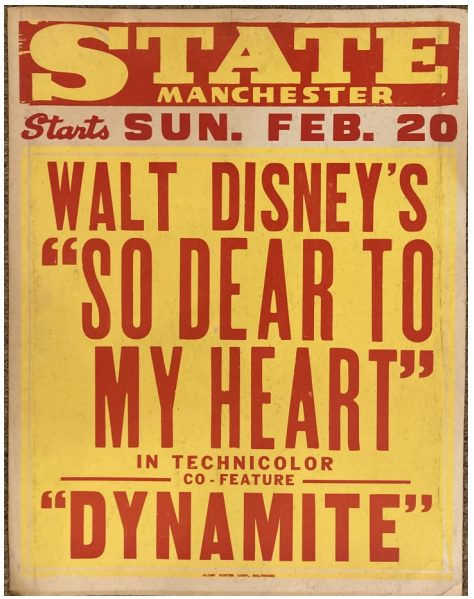

These four circus-themed posters were created for and used in an antique show fundraiser in 1992 for the Elliot Hospital Associates. Each poster recognizes a local corporate sponsor of the show. They were hand-painted by artist Jeff Cuddy, whose wife was a member of the Elliot Associates. Cuddy was a prominent New Hampshire artist, serving as WMUR's first art director and later as art assistant to cartoonist Bob Montana, creator of the Archie comics. These posters were donated to the MHA Collection in 2023 by the Elliot Hospital Associates.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The Manchester Historic Association had a favorable investment market in 2023 which enabled us to continue paying down the principal on our note payable by almost $90,000.

Our investments were up strongly for the year and we were fortunate to add to them with increases to both our endowment and our non-restricted fund balances. We are very grateful for three bequests that we received in 2023. Bequests from the estates of Dr. Francis M. Mason and Virginia Doherty were put into a new, board-designated endowment fund where these gifts, as well as any unrestricted bequests that are received in the future, will be held. Additionally, a bequest from the estate of Barbara Ekern Simerl was received for the care for the MHA's Henry Herrick Collection.

We continue to rely on the income from our endowment to fund our operations, but we are blessed with a supportive community. We rely on our strong membership and the contributions and grants from our business partners, foundations and other local organizations to support our mission to collect, preserve, and share Manchester' history.
